

Death Blow Mapped For Price Controls

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Foes of price and wage controls were reported today mapping plans to deal a death blow to the already battered controls extension bill.

The Defense Production Act, which gives the president authority to control wages, prices, rents and production, expires next Monday unless Congress extends it.

May Let Law Die
And strong sentiment for letting the law die was expected to be voiced by Republicans and Southern Democrats, who already have stripped the measure of most of its effective price control powers. They appear to have the votes to get their way, too, when the bill comes up for action tomorrow.

Rep. Spence (D-Ky.), chairman of the House Banking Committee, said his administration forces would make an all-out fight against a probable let-it-die movement.

A decontrol amendment by Rep. Talle (R-Iowa), overwhelmingly adopted last Friday, would require that price controls be lifted on goods which (1) have sold below ceilings for three months, or (2) are in adequate supply—that is, not rationed or allocated. No goods now are rationed.

This was followed by a vote to abolish the present Wage Stabilization Board and replace it with an agency limited to policy matters and without authority to make recommendations in labor disputes.

All House actions so far are only tentative and still subject to final roll call votes.

Will Ask Injunction
The strategy of controls foes appeared aimed at riddling the bill with amendments first, then changing the data on the extension bill to this June 30. — the

Politicians Back Up Strip Teaser

DETROIT—(AP)—Miss Carol Leclair, a 28-year-old strawberry blonde strip tease artist, today had the support of a Windsor, Ont., politician and members of Canada's crack Essex Scottish regiment in her tussle with police who arrested her Saturday night at a reunion banquet of the regiment.

The Detroit strip teaser charged that Windsor police "ran for cover when they couldn't make the charges against her stick."

She referred to police accusations that she ran for cover when they interrupted her dance before the Essex-Scottish reunion.

Miss Leclair was released on a $100 bond. So far no actual charges have been lodged against her.

Somewhat indignantly, the dancer, insisted she had been fully clothed when arrested and was not much less so during her performance.

"Why, it was the same act I did in Boston," she said, "and if you can do it in Boston you can do it anywhere."

Lawrence A. Deziel, a member of Windsor's board of control and a candidate in this year's mayoralty election, attended the banquet. Deziel said police could not press charges against the comedy stripper because the only applicable law covers theater performances. Miss Leclair danced at the Windsor armory.

"If she does go to court, I will defend her," Deziel, an attorney, said.

He claimed the raid which resulted in Miss Leclair's arrest was "political" and aimed at discrediting him and the Essex Scottish regiment.

same date the present law expires. This would be the same as letting all controls die at midnight Monday.

When the House takes up the bill again tomorrow, the first order of business will be a proposal by Rep. Smith (D-Va.) to request President Truman to invoke the Taft-Hartley injunction provision in the steel strike.

Administration leaders said in advance they had little hope of blocking it. A similar provision was written into the version passed by the Senate. Truman has pointed out that Congress can't make him invoke the law, with its 80-day no-strike injunction feature.

Peace At Stake In GOP Contest, Says Eisenhower

By DON WHITEHEAD
DENVER — (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today "I fervently hope" that a foreign policy plank can be written into the Republican platform which would be acceptable both to him and to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

The general told an early morning news conference: "I don't want to see a bitter convention fight over this point."

This statement came after Eisenhower had pitched his campaign on a peace or war issue with Taft. He had grouped Taft among the nation's isolationists in a major foreign policy speech last night. A reporter asked if he was "trying to put Taft on the defensive" in the final stages of the campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Eisenhower replied, "No, no. I just believe that someone must preach the truth about these things."

In reply to another question he made it clear he believes that Taft is among those who would "sit at home with an air force to be dispatched into the wild blue yonder" as America's major defense line.

He outlined his own peace and (Continued on Page 12)

Taft Lengthens His Lead To 84

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (AP) — Senator Robert A. Taft, picking up 10 more Illinois votes, today had strengthened his lead to 84 over his chief rival for delegates to the Republican national convention.

Selection yesterday of the 10 Illinois delegates at large backing the Ohio Senator completed the list of the country's Republican national convention delegates.

Taft, in the Associated Press tabulation of delegate support, has a total of 477 delegates. His chief opponent, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, has 393.

Others in the poll have a total of 129 while 207 are in dispute or not committed. Others in the tabulation and pledged delegates include Gov. Earl Warren, 76; Harold E. Stassen, 25; Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland, 24; Gen. Douglas MacArthur, 3; Gen. Albert Wedemeyer, 1.

The tabulation is based on pledges, instructions, delegates willing to express a first ballot choice and on candidate concessions. Thus, it shows Taft with more than one-third of the 1,206 delegates favoring his nomination at the convention which opens in Chicago July 7. A total of 604 is needed to nominate.

The 10 delegates at large named at yesterday's Illinois GOP convention will join the 49 of 50 delegates elected in the Illinois primary April 8 who also are Taft backers.

Eugene Black Goes All Out For Ike As 'No Deal' President

DETROIT—(AP)—Former state attorney general Eugene F. Black has announced he will forego any campaigning on his own this year to devote his full time to helping Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower obtain the Republican presidential nomination.

Black yesterday said he has changed his mind about running for circuit judge in the St. Clair district.

The former state official said the big issue now "is the election of a No Deal president."

Taft Backers May Boom MacArthur For Vice President

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON — (AP) — A MacArthur - for - Vice - President move was reported under discussion today by some supporters of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who will keynote the Republican National Convention opening in Chicago July 7, has given public support to Taft's bid for the presidential nomination.

And while the general has said repeatedly he isn't a candidate for any office, some of the senator's followers believe MacArthur might be persuaded to accept second place on the ticket—assuming Taft gets the top spot.

They envision a colorful election campaign in which the five-star general would be provided with a special train and tour the country extensively.

The MacArthur tack is based on the apparent assumption of some Taft people that their candidate can win the presidential nomination without having to promise second place to anybody in return for delegate support.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's backers say Taft isn't going to win the nomination at all, so they contend the Ohioan won't have anything to do with the choice of the vice-presidential nominee.

MacArthur made it clear through an aide yesterday he isn't against the election of professional soldiers to public office, as such, through he's strongly against the development of a military state. This seemed to leave him free to accept a nomination if he chose to do so.

Charles Skillen, state Democratic chairman said his survey of the delegates showed they are "generally favorable, if not unanimously" for Stevenson. All are "uninstructed," he said.

An unofficial Associated Press survey showed 15 votes in favor of Stevenson; one for Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee; six undecided, and four unavailable or not stating a preference.

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — (AP) — The U. N. Security Council postponed debate on Communist germ warfare charges until tomorrow after Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik demanded that Red China and North Korea be allowed to participate. The delay paved the way for an anticipated French compromise disarmament proposal.

The council decided last night to put off the germ warfare debate after French delegate Jules Moch requested a meeting today of the disarmament commission, made up of the 11 Security Council members and Canada.

Moch, who leaves Thursday to resume his duties as Socialist leader in the French parliament, was reported ready to present a compromise proposal which he hopes may break the East-West deadlock before the commission.

At yesterday's council meeting both the United States and Britain charged Malik was abusing his position as council president to delay action on the U. S. proposal for an impartial inquiry into the Communist charges that the U. S. had used germ warfare in Korea.

Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney denied in New York an assertion by Lt. Gen. R. L. Eichelberger that MacArthur wanted Eisenhower to remove himself from the presidential picture in 1947 so the way would be clear for MacArthur to run himself for the Republican presidential nomination in 1948.

Indiana Favors Gov. Stevenson

By LOUIS J. KRAMP
INDIANAPOLIS — (AP) — The bulk of Indiana's 26-vote delegation to the Democratic national convention appeared today to be available to help Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois win the party's presidential nomination.

Twenty-two full-vote delegates were named last night in 11 separate congressional district caucuses. Eight half-vote delegates were to be formally chosen today in a state convention. There are 30 delegates with a total of 26 votes. None is pledged or formally instructed for any candidate.

The convention prepared to nominate Gov. Henry F. Schrieker, a strong Stevenson backer, for U. S. Senator, Schrieker, the party's No. 1 vote-getter in Indiana since 1940, will oppose Republican Sen. William E. Jenner in the November election.

Charles Skillen, state Democratic chairman said his survey of the delegates showed they are "generally favorable, if not unanimously" for Stevenson. All are "uninstructed," he said.

An unofficial Associated Press survey showed 15 votes in favor of Stevenson; one for Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee; six undecided, and four unavailable or not stating a preference.

By JIM BECKER
SEOUL, Korea — (AP)—Russian-built tanks rumbled southward across Parallel 38 in the predawn darkness two years ago tomorrow and plunged Korea into a bloody, bitter war that has become a stalemate.

The naked aggression against the United Nations-sponsored Republic of (South) Korea by the Soviet Union's puppet North "Korean Peoples Republic" began a destructive, see-saw struggle that has left this Asiatic peninsula in ruins.

U. S. Losses 109,971

456 casualties, most South Koreans, but including 109,971 Americans. The Chinese and North Korean Reds killed, wounded, or captured are reckoned at 1,623,404.

And now the conflict is almost where it began. Powerful land armies have remained more or less stable, for nearly a year, along a line stretching diagonally northeastward from a few miles south of Parallel 38 in West Korea.

Until only a few days ago, both sides seemed awaiting the outcome of the almost year old unproductive armistice talks at Panmunjom.

Putting On Pressure

However, as the war's second anniversary drew near, Allied tanks and infantry were putting pressure on the Chinese in Western Korea and North Korea's vital

Big Communist Electric Plant Pounded To Junk

(By The Associated Press)
SEOUL, Korea — (AP) — Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers teamed up again today to hammer four of the five Communist hydro-electric plants smashed yesterday in the biggest air raid of the Korean war.

Nearly 200 Navy planes from big fleet carriers off Korea's east coast joined Air Force planes from dozens of Korean bases to hit the shattered generating stations for the second straight day, Navy headquarters announced.

None of the planes returned to the smoldering Suho power plants just south of the Yalu river boundary. But the Air Force said F-84 Thunderjets "completed destruction" of two power stations near Changjin reservoir and two on the Songchon river in eastern Korea.

F-86 Sabre jet pilots exchanged firing passes with five MIG-15 jets south of the Yalu Tuesday afternoon, the Air Force said.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported increasing patrol action along the 155-mile battle front Tuesday.

As Allied experts studied gun film to evaluate destruction done by Monday's big raid on North Korean power plants, there were strong hints that more Red targets are marked for attack.

New Tough Policy

Military officials in Washington said Monday's raid on Communist generating stations inaugurated a new "get tough" policy adopted as a result of Red stalling in the armistice negotiations.

One spokesman who asked not to be identified said "we now realize the best chance for breaking the deadlock at Panmunjom is to hit the enemy with all the force at our command."

A study of gun camera films from the 500 Air Force, Marine and carrier-based Navy planes which took part in the Korean war's biggest air attack showed the strike was virtually a 100 per cent success, the Air Force said.

An official spokesman said direct hits were registered on all five targets, and the world's fourth largest hydro-electric plant at Suho was a "pile of junk." He described the 1,400 foot row of giant transformers and other equipment as a shambles.

No Pilots Lost

The Suho plant lies only a half mile south of Manchuria on the Yalu river. Other plants were smashed at the Changjin reservoir and on the Songchon river in eastern Korea.

Perjury Proceedings Hinted In Whitewash Of Liquor Industry

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A House Republican raised the possibility of perjury proceedings today in the wake of conflicting testimony about the lack of anti-trust action against big liquor distillers.

Rep. Keating (R-NY), senior minority member of a House judiciary sub-committee, mentioned perjury prosecution after the group heard a charge and a denial that the Justice Department issued a "whitewash" report on the liquor industry.

Several new witnesses, representing the cooperage (whiskey barrel) industry, were called to testify today.

Ernest L. Branham, a Justice Department attorney, told the sub-committee yesterday a recently prepared report saying there was no evidence of conspiracy among the distillers was a "whitewash of everything that had happened in the industry."

Branham testified that in November, 1948, he received information to the effect that: 1—Officials of some of the Big Four distillers contributed to campaign chests of both the Democratic and Republican parties prior to the 1948 election; and 2—Some unidentified Justice Department official assured one of the liquor companies it need not fear an anti-trust investigation—that if one was made, Branham would have nothing to do with it.

Branham said he never learned if this information was accurate but turned it over to his superiors, including Bergson. Branham said Bergson told him he would look into it.

The escape erupted into one of eastern Michigan's most widespread manhunts. It ended in a 50-acre wheat field between Reese and Richville, along the Saginaw-Tuscola county border last night.

The fugitives, first taken to the Tuscola county jail at Caro, and then brought here were: Lodes Gorbey, 18, and Fred Proctor, 29, both being held as thieves here when they escaped.

A fusillade of pistol shots drove them into a wheat field after they had been spotted walking along railroad tracks near Richville. They surrendered meekly when spotted although Proctor still was armed with a gun taken off Deputy Martin. Gorbey had discarded his coat, a pocket of which held an unloaded pistol taken from the glove compartment of the deputy's car.

The deputy's car was one of two taken by the fleeing men. They ran one through a police roadblock.

DETROIT—(AP)—Rep. Potter today accused Sen. Moody and Governor Williams of playing a "political bluff" and being insincere over the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The Republican congressman issued a statement attacking the Moody-Williams proposal that Great Lakes states negotiate with Canada for use of the Seaway if Canada builds it.

Last week the joint U. S.-Canada construction proposal was killed in Congress for this session. The Senate referred the bill to committee.

Potter said that Democrats Moody and Williams are "playing fast and loose" with the people and trying to put over a "political bluff for their own personal advantage."

He also said the two are "ignorant or of indifference to" the constitution. He said the constitution reserves to the federal government the right to enter into treaties or compacts with foreign governments.

Potter, who describes himself as a supporter of the Seaway, said the Democrats' latest action in the Senate was only a "gesture" and was "far from sincere."

Potter said the "principal reason" for the Seaway bill's "continual defeat" in the Senate is the opposition of Sen. Connally of Texas, a Democrat.

He predicted the Seaway would only be approved in the United States when there is a Republican president and Republicans control Congress.

India, Denmark, Norway and Sweden contributed medical units afloat or ashore.

Acheson-Eden Talks To Cover World Frontier

By MICHAEL NEWMARCH
LONDON — (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden discussed their problems in Europe and the middle east behind closed doors today.

A spokesman said the western diplomatic chiefs made a general review of the situation in those two areas in a two hour meeting this morning.

They plan to resume their talks this afternoon. Acheson will meet the heads of British diplomatic missions in the middle east who are winding up a separate four day conference here.

Big 3 Meeting Friday

The Acheson-Eden talks are a prelude to a Big Three foreign ministers' meeting on Friday when French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman will join in the discussions.

George F. Kennan, the U. S. ambassador in Moscow, will fly to London from Germany on Thursday to meet with Eden.

The main problem facing the United States, Britain and France in Europe at the moment is their reply to the latest Russian note on a peace treaty for Germany.

In the middle east, Britain has been anxious to set up a new defense grouping revolving around the Suez Canal zone.

Major turning points are expected soon in Britain's relations with Egypt, which have shown signs of improving recently, and (Continued on Page 12)

Polio Situation Grave In Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. — (AP)—Governor Allan Shivers says the polio situation in Texas is at a critical stage and has called on alarmed Texans to mobilize against the disease.

Shivers yesterday asked cities and towns to clean up their back yards, their alleys and streets. He urged "every member of every family" to help out by taking part in the cleanup drive.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said in New York that the polio increase in Texas was more marked than in the rest of the nation.

Fifteen new polio cases were reported in hard-hit Houston yesterday, a record nine from within the city limits. About 200 cases have been reported in the county (Harris). The Foundation said emergency equipment had been shipped to Houston and Dr. G. Foard McGinnis, special epidemic co-ordinator for the National Foundation, was due there.

Potato Market Pinch Explained

Disruption of regular supply and distribution channels by the heavy buying of outside truckers was blamed for the 1952 potato 'shortage' by Joseph Ivens, Upper Peninsula manager of the Michigan Potato Growers Exchange, in a discussion of potato growing and marketing at the regular weekly meeting of the Escanaba Kiwanis club Monday.

Mr. Ivens declared that the market started out healthy in the fall and winter of 1951, and the potato supply apparently was big enough to meet the demand. Then came OPS order 113, prohibiting extra price charges of dealers for washing and packaging. Truckers were able, however, to secure an added price allowance for transportation, and they came in to buy from growers, drying up the supply and throwing the entire distribution system out of line.

The speaker outlined briefly the history of the Michigan Potato Growers Exchange, founded in 1918, the oldest of its kind in the nation. With a main office in Cadillac, the Exchange has two wholesale warehouses, Cadillac and Escanaba, and sells Michigan potatoes in 36 states. The Exchange was the first to introduce 15-pound bags for the retail trade back in 1928, and now packages the tubers also in 10 and 5-pound sacks in addition to the utility 100-pound bag.

The packaging plant at Escanaba, Ivens said, was the most modern this side of Chicago. Fertilizers, sprays, feeds, grains and other allied farm supplies are handled in addition to potatoes.

Jack Eden was program chairman for the meeting Monday.

A bolt of lightning during the early morning thunderstorm today caused major damage to one Escanaba home and spread part of its havoc to another residence three houses away.

Local firemen were called at 2:46 a. m. today to the J. H. Thompson home at 2421 Lake Shore Dr. where the lightning charge had torn off the chimney and cut a swath to a room below, demolishing the room's ceiling and setting a smoldering fire in the insulation material. The fire was out on the arrival of the fire department.

A brick from the shorn-off chimney was flung by the blast into a picture window of the M. R. Oslund home, about 300 feet from the Thompson residence.

Estimate of the total damage was not disclosed.

Postpone Hearing Of Norton Suit

Hearing of the John P. Norton estate's suit for accounting against Frank and George Lindenthal and radio station WDBC, scheduled to begin in a special session of Circuit Court tomorrow, has been postponed pending further preparation of the case.

Plaintiff's attorneys have not yet announced intended action on Judge Glenn W. Jackson's tentative opinion that they take depositions in their motion for discovery.

Judge Jackson last month filed a court order suggesting that plaintiff's counsel get sworn statements of the defendants to establish whether certain documents wanted for investigation by them do actually exist. They were given 30 days in which to file the depositions or stand on their original discovery motion. The 30-day period has not yet expired.

Reduce Speed, Drivers Told

Police, sheriffs' departments and judges of the state will concentrate during the next several weeks on a speed control campaign in an attempt to cut down the number of accidents in which this No. 1 killer has a part, it is announced by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

The Michigan State Safety Commission, sponsor of the campaign, has requested the State Police to take over its leadership. The campaign is part of a nationwide program being promoted by the National Safety Council.

The appeal will be placed before the public by the press, radio, and movies, and in leaflets, stickers and posters bearing the slogan "Now—Take It Easy."

"We hope the campaign will have lasting effects and not result in just a temporary improvement in speed control," Childs said. "Speed is the most dangerous enemy on the road and a factor in two out of every five fatal traffic accidents."

"Reports crossing my desk show that traffic casualties on Michigan streets and highways—the injured and killed combined—are now nearly 1,000 persons a week. This is a frightful toll and a big percentage are victims of fast driving."

"During the next few weeks our efforts will be centered on bringing this lesson home to the public through repeated emphasis on the danger of speeding. Trying to save five minutes in reaching a destination is a reckless gamble with life. Moreover, the speeder is a menace to everyone else on the road. We're urging the use of more common sense to help reduce our traffic accident toll. We want drivers to voluntarily take it easy."

No Gate Admissions At U. P. State Fair

Adopting an entirely new policy on an experimental basis, the board of managers of the Upper Peninsula State Fair has decided to abandon this year gate admission charges throughout the six days of the U. P. State Fair at Escanaba, Aug. 12-17.

The only charge to be assessed to fair patrons will be the customary parking fee for automobiles. In past years the fair board authorized a free gate only to five o'clock each afternoon except Thursday and Sunday when gate charges were in effect throughout the day.

"On the basis of our past experience, we will yield about $18,000 in gate revenues by abandoning this charge but we believe the experiment is worthwhile," a spokesman for the board of managers said. "The fair patrons will have more money available for fair attractions, midway enjoyment, etc."

Another change invoked this year is a complete elimination of all games of chance on the fairgrounds. There will be no bingo games, no gold-diggers, no rat races, no raffle wheels or no games of any kind in which the element of skill does not prevail.

This change has been made by the board of managers in accordance with recommendations of the state attorney general's office and is designed to eliminate the hazard of racketeering on the fairgrounds midway.

The board of managers has emphasized that there will be plenty of clean fun and entertainment for patrons of the fair, including many rides and shows, as well as extensive educational exhibits.

Summer Becomes Danger-Time On Tourist-Crowded Highways

HIGHWAY deaths in the nation rise sharply during the summer months when road surfaces are clear, the weather is sunny, and the usual traffic hazards such as ice and snow are missing.

The reasons for the rising toll of accidents and deaths may not be immediately apparent to the motorists themselves. Usually the summertime accident is caused by two factors:

- 1—The high volume of traffic, and 2—Excessive speed combined with carelessness.

In the months between June and September 72 percent of all the highway travel of the year will be wheeling along U. S. highways, according to the American Automobile Association. This increased volume of traffic is created by the normal urge of the people to travel—on vacations, to visit relatives, to go touring.

Many drivers whose careless habits on

Cooperation Needed In Gas Conversion

THE conversion to propane air gas from the manufactured gas used here for many years is a process that must necessarily take some time and cause a degree of inconvenience for gas customers.

Yet with good cooperation from the consumers, the entire conversion can be accomplished safely and with a minimum of inconvenience. New orifices must be installed on every gas appliance because propane air gas burns differently than the city's plant. The top burners of gas ranges can be used during the conversion period simply by turning down the flame. Propane air gas has a much higher concentration of BTUs than does manufactured gas and as a result the flame will be lower for the same degree of heat.

Major inconvenience during the conversion period will be to those families using gas water heaters and gas refrigerators. These units must be shut off while the changeover is being made, but the city has been divided into five sections for purposes of conversion. Thus, no consumer will be inconvenienced for a long period of time.

Check the conversion map published in yesterday's issue of the Press. You can readily see in which section your home is located. Announcements from time to time during the conversion project will indicate which section is being converted.

Beginning Wednesday morning, the conversion work will be concentrated in Section 1. This entire area will be converted to the new gas before propane air gas will be turned into the mains in Section 2, 3, 4 or 5.

In addition to the announcements in the newspaper, each customer will be further notified by mail the exact date that propane gas will be turned into their homes.

The new propane air gas is a much better fuel product than the manufactured gas used in Escanaba for a number of years. It is more volatile, cleaner and non-toxic. Also it is more economical than manufactured gas and when the gas plant bonds are redeemed, the rate schedules should be considerably lower.

The Doctor Says . . . Good Diet Important Measure In Preserving Children's Teeth

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Not being a dentist, the writer of this column has said little about the care of the teeth. But the scope of the problem is enormous.

It is said that more than 22 million newly-erupted teeth develop each year among the 38 million children between 6 and 18 years of age in the United States. It is also claimed that 15 out of 100 grownups have artificial teeth, and another 20 out of the 100 should have them.

Everyone can help to reduce tooth decay. One measure which is particularly important for children is the maintenance of a good diet, which contains adequate amounts of milk and milk products, fruits, vegetables, cereals, eggs, lean meat, poultry, fish and whole grain bread.

In fact anything which aids the body to keep in good health, including diet, also apparently helps to prevent tooth decay.

Mouth cleanliness is one of the most important measures. Food particles readily lodge in the teeth, where they decay rapidly, and in doing so injure the hard surfaces of the teeth.

The most desirable practice is to brush the teeth after each meal, but if this can't be done, rinsing the mouth carefully would help some.

Those grownups who do not already know it, should be instructed by their dentists as to just how their teeth should be brushed, and children should receive the same instruction as early in life as possible.

Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Congressmen Oren Harris, Arkansas Democrat, tried to laugh off a $200 dinner date with Pan American Airways' vice president, J. Carroll Cone, as reported in this column.

In 1950, Harris voted against Pan Am on the question of separating mail pay from government subsidies. But this year, Pan Am's representative paid the check for Harris and his wife at the $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson day dinner. After that dinner, Harris reversed his vote on the mail pay question, and even took the initiative in the secrecy of the committee, of introducing the Pan Am substitute.

After these facts were brought to light by this column, Harris was kidded about it at a closed-door meeting of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

At least the Democratic party got the $200 and the congressman got a free dinner—Pan American Airways stands to get $17,000,000 at the taxpayers' expense.

STOP KEFAUVER

Inside fact about the Harriman-Kefauver race in the District of Columbia was that President Truman had passed out word that he wanted to use this to stop Kefauver at any cost.

Mr. T., egged on by those around him, is still smarting over the way the lank Tennessean trounced him in the New Hampshire primary. And, to get even, the President passed the word down to the local Democratic machine, also delivered a ringing civil rights speech at Washington's leading Negro college, Howard University, at the height of the Kefauver-Harriman campaign. There were two results:

1. Immediate result was to put the Tennessee senator on the spot with Negro voters.
2. Long-term results will be to defeat home rule for the District of Columbia.

For the manner in which Negro voters repeated at the polls on behalf of Harriman strengthened the argument that the colored population would vote along racial lines if the franchise were given to the nation's capital.

For instance, election observers spotted a gray Pontiac convertible (license J-9757), a Cadillac (license 721), and at least three cabs (licenses 6911, H-8079, and H-6797), making the rounds of the polling places, picking up and dropping off the very same groups of Negroes.

Under the lax D. C. primary rules repeating was easy. All the repeaters had to do was sign a statement that they were Democrats. There was no double check on their names or whether they had voted elsewhere that day.

Note—Only 19,000 voters were cast in a city now approaching a population of a million.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Frank Edwards, one of the most forthright radio reporters in the game, is going to have the rug pulled out from under him by three A. F. of L. unions. The Edwards program is unique in radio as the first ever to be sponsored by labor unions. However, Edwards has done too good a job. Remarkably one labor leader: "If he had just muddled along, the Republicans wouldn't resent it. But how can the AFL get any co-operation from the Republicans if we are fighting them on the radio every night?" . . . Despite the opposition of big steel to the Wage Stabilization Board's package program, two small steel companies signed up with the union on the WSB terms and are making money. They are Henry Kaiser's Fontana plant at San Bernardino, Calif., and Portsmouth Steel at Portsmouth, Ohio, owned by Cyrus Eaton. . . . Though Eaton and Kaiser hate each other, they both get along with labor.

WATCHING MCCARRAN

Nevada's wily Senator Pat McCarran has quarterbacked many a fast one in the Senate, but none to match the sleeper he almost put across recently. He came within a whisker of slipping an amendment through the Senate, sight unseen, requiring the taxpayers to stand good the loss if any contractor lost money on a defense contract for the government.

McCarran's amendment also would have reached back to World War II and permitted the reopening of several war contracts, even though already vetoed by the courts.

In brief, any of McCarran's contractor friends who lost money could simply turn their bills over to the government and the government had to make up the deficit.

However, alert Senator Francis Case, South Dakota Republican, smelled something fishy about the amendment and blocked it for 15 days for further study. McCarran, himself, never even appeared on the floor, but got Senator Eastland, Mississippi Democrat, to carry the ball for him.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Cairo, Egypt—United States airmen in big Consolidated bombers dealt heavy blows to Bengazi, the chief axis supply base in Libya, while the German-Italian army consolidated its gains and massed its strength for a projected invasion of Egypt.

Escanaba—Registration for canning sugar has gone up to 120 per day at sugar ration headquarters in the Webster School Annex.

Manistique—Mrs. H. S. Tyrrell returned from Chicago after spending ten days with her husband who was in the Navy.

Gladstone—Jack Rogers, city, had left for the University of Iowa at Iowa City where he was inducted as a naval aviation cadet.

20 YEARS AGO

Washington — Vanishing foodstuffs and diminishing funds to buy new supplies led the police to appeal to the veterans army that sought bonuses to expedite an evacuation of the encampment.

Detroit—The timid ones among the dries did great harm to the cause by "pussy-footing" methods, the superintendent of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League declared in his annual report.

Escanaba—The city tax rate for 1932 was reduced from $13.65 to $12.65 per $1,000 valuation. This was the lowest rate ever set in Escanaba until that time.

Kind acts may speak for themselves, but too often they talk in a whisper.

Brother, You Don't Know the Half of It!

Morocco's Cries For Freedom Place Challenge Before U. S.

By ROSETTE HARGROVE

NEA Staff Correspondent

RABAT, Morocco (NEA)—The spirit of nationalism and resentment of French rule in Morocco is just part of a legitimate desire of Moroccans for self-government, and the French—to their credit—recognize the movement for what it is.

But while admitting that the Moroccans' desires are reasonable, French protectorate officials believe the natives are not ready to govern themselves and they list numerous reasons to back up their belief.

In addition to the general backwardness of the country, the French say there is no one group seeking independence which has a bulk of the people behind it.

The French estimate at only 120,000 the combined membership of the nationalist Istiqlal (Independence) party and the P.D.I. (Democratic Party of Independence), an offshoot of the Istiqlal. Compared with the 8,500,000 population of Morocco, such party membership seems small.

The nationalists, on the other hand, claim that every Moroccan is a "nationalist." They point to what happened last May 30, the 40th anniversary of the date the French took over Morocco as a protectorate. Nationalists had circulated the word that the date was to be celebrated as "a day of national mourning and protestation."

A visit to the native quarters of this capital city of Morocco and of the nearby town of Sale showed the instructions had been obeyed. All stores, except those belonging to Europeans, were tightly shuttered. Groups of Arabs stood around in sullen silence. The busy, noisy thoroughfare which ordinarily crowded the narrow streets was not there.

Into this touchy Moroccan political situation there have come within the last year and a half several thousand Americans to build five big U. S. military air bases.

We didn't help our cause with the nationalists any by ignoring their Sultan and dealing directly with the French on the air base question. But the money we brought in, largely in higher wages for native labor, helped ease the situation.

Our personnel managers, who might be excused for a scanty knowledge of inner Moroccan political workings, fouled up a little by hiring some nationalists on a project at the U. S. naval base at Port Lyautey. One of these was Mohammed A. Fasi, an ardent leader.

Fasi was busy stirring up nationalism among Moroccan workers when the French discovered his presence and hustled him out of Morocco to an adjoining country. He's now working there for an American soft drink company.

As far as Fasi and many others like him are concerned, Morocco owes nothing to the French. "The French talk of the blood and sweat and tears which have gone into the pacification of Morocco," they say. "But what about our contribution in the two world wars when we sent our men to fight for the Allies?"

Mahdi Bennaoui is another nationalist the French have eased out of the country. He was working as a top personnel man on the Port Lyautey operation until the French discovered he was the brother of one of the nationalist leaders in Spanish Morocco. Mahdi is now working at an office job in Tangier.

Mahdi Bennaoui declares that he is "not interested in nationalism as such," and that, "what I dream of is equal rights and freedom for all."

FOOD FOR THE FAMINE-STRIKEN mountain tribes, whose crops failed last year, is distributed under French-Morocco mutual aid program, which has helped to ease native animosity.

To the French charge that the Moroccans are not yet prepared to handle their affairs alone, Mohammed Fasi has perhaps the best answer his people can give:

"All right, maybe we are not ready to govern ourselves. That is the fault of the French. But there has got to be a beginning to everything."

"We can always appeal to the United Nations for help and support. And there are other experts besides Frenchmen to undertake the running of a highly modernized state."

"What about the Scandinavians, the Swiss, the British and the Americans?" Other countries before us have learned by trial and error. Freedom of government has been granted to countries like Libya, Saudi Arabia, India, so why not us?"

Sooner or later, the United States, with the big stake it now has in Morocco, will probably have to come up with satisfactory answers to questions such as these.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

FOOLISH OR WISE — As the election year of 1952 approaches its climax you will hear more and more about cutting federal taxes, and more and more in defense of the present tax burden.

Those who are opposed to high taxes will tell you that the tax load can be cut by eliminating the non-essentials from the federal program; those who defend high taxes will tell you that taxes cannot be reduced because we must defend ourselves against Russia.

For the average Mr. and Mrs. Citizen not connected with the public payroll a reduction in taxes would be like manna from Heaven.

For the federal payrollers, some in positions of dubious if not downright inconsequence, any talk of reducing taxes on "non-essentials" will be fought.

No doubt they, being closer to the picture than anyone else, recognize just what non-essential means.

FOR THE PEOPLE—Talk of tax reduction has been called "foolish" in some quarters, but just how essential it is to cut the total tax burden is understood by every taxpayer who is trying to make his pay meet his living expenses.

The deductions for taxes cannot buy groceries, just as the federal taxes on certain essential commodities like gasoline, will not help you operate your car.

Government always claims that what it is doing is for the benefit of the people, and the people are always calling upon government for additional services.

But there is no doubt that if the people were intimately acquainted with the whole story of "public service" they would balk at paying the shot on some items in the federal budget.

THE PATRIOTS—At the present time it is the claim of the high-taxes crowd that it is unpatriotic to talk about a reduction in taxes.

It is unpatriotic, they cry, shocked to the bottom of their pocketbooks, for anyone to question the necessity for high taxes. Why, if we reduce taxes the military will not have all the equipment, men, and machinery to defend the nation from attack by Russia.

For the benefit of the "tax 'em to death" school, it has been pointed out many times that what this country needs is the lopping of non-essential services—not capitulation to Russia.

But for reasons of political expediency the clamor for high taxes continues, not for defense but to maintain the pet programs, the over-stuffed bureaus, and the non-essentials that spell political control.

THE ONE WAY — This year marks an opportunity for the people to unburden themselves of at least a portion of the federal tax load without endangering national defense in the slightest.

The citizens can show their patriotism by demanding the elimination of non-essential spending; by refusing to appeal for or to accept additional non-essential public services; by working actively for candidates who believe in economy.

This is the only way, short of national bankruptcy, that will bring federal spending into line with the ability of the people to pay the shot.

WHAT PRICE GLORY—Despite claims to the contrary, it is not taxes but men and machinery that produce the weapons of national defense.

This was adequately illustrated by the fact that despite ample appropriations the armament program lagged during the past half-year. All of the money appropriated was not used.

The lesson to be learned is that government, of itself, produces nothing; that people not only produce the taxes by which government operates but also the food, the tanks, the shoes and guns and the fighting men.

And if the people want relief from their tax burden it is for them, not the government planners, to decide that it shall be done.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

"WHO'S THERE?" "IT'S ONLY ME."

More ink has been spilled on the question of It is I versus It is me than, possibly, on any other point of English grammar. Though it is not at all likely that my views will be the last word on the subject, I may be able to help my readers somewhat by stating them.

By the rules of English grammar the verb to be should never be followed by a pronoun in the objective case. One correctly says, That is he walking down the street; Who is she; Who am I to be saying such things; These are they who called last evening; Who were we refused to say. Such constructions as these are never questioned. They sound right and they are right.

But you will notice that each of the examples so far is formal. It is when we get to common ordinary speech that the formal rules of grammar cause uncertainty. Take the last example. Would you say without hesitancy, I'm sure it's she, and I think that's he? That would be correct according to the rules of grammar, but about half of the people you meet would say, "I'm sure it's her, and I think that's him."

If you and your brother came home late and your father called out, Who's there? would you reply, It's we? The chances are two to one that, despite grammar, you would say, It's us. Or if you passed a snapshot to a friend, would you say, Which is I? Not likely. If he correctly identified you in the group, would you say, Yes, that's I, all right? Improbably.

In other words, although in formal speech a pronoun following the verb to be should agree with a preceding noun or pronoun, in colloquial or ordinary speech there are justifiable exceptions. That is, for example, if the question is put formally, Who is there? one would properly answer with equal formality, "It is only I. In ordinary informal speech one needs feel no twinges of conscience if he says, 'It's only me.'"

Federal College Scholarship Fund Sought By Ewing

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Oscar R. Ewing has asked Congress to enact a law to provide federal funds to help boys and girls go to college.

Ewing, who is head of the Federal Security Agency, said he had President Truman's authorization "to transmit to Congress a student aid bill to provide educational opportunity for those barred from attending our colleges by economic roadblocks."

The program would cost 32 million dollars in its first year and would increase annually until it reached a total of 128 millions per year.

Congress was asked to provide scholarships of up to $800 a year for the "neediest of the ablest" among the nation's high school students. The funds would go to 50,000 or 60,000 students a year.

Under the plan, the students could borrow from educational institutions sums ranging up to $600 a year. That would provide a four-year maximum of $2,400. The government would insure up to 80 per cent of the unpaid balance.

State scholarship commissions would select the students. The bill would prohibit any federal influences in the selecting of the students. The students would be permitted to pick their own colleges.

Ewing said that "for every student who attends college, another gifted student who could qualify fails to attend because he cannot afford the costs."

"This constitutes a tremendous waste of our precious human resources."

AS WE LIVE

Teenager May Not Rate Privilege Of Family Car

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

American teenagers of today act as if they had no legs. They want the family car for every possible occasion and they feel abused when they are told they cannot have it. Many parents disapprove of teenage driving and hesitate to turn over a car to a teenager whenever he asks for it. This 17-year-old girl whose father will not let her have the family car feels abused.

(Q) "I have a lot of trouble getting the family car. My dad just doesn't trust me with it. When my brothers were my age, they used to get the car to go roller skating. Now my dad blows his top when I ask for it. All my girl friends get their dad's cars to go to the show or whatever else they want to do. When they ask me when I am going to get my dad's car, I lie to them because I don't want them to know my own dad won't trust me. What can I do to make him trust me?"

(A) Are you sure that your father's action is because he does not trust you? Isn't it possible that he thinks girls of your age should use public transportation, if the distance is too far to walk?

When a family has only one car for the entire family, it is not fair for a teenager to tie it up so that the rest of the family is deprived of its use. This is especially true if the father uses the car for business.

Then, too, you may not have shown the qualities in your everyday behavior that your father feels are essential in a good driver. It takes more than knowing the mechanics of a car to be a good driver. You must have a degree of stability and quick thinking to be a safe driver.

Just because a teenager reaches the age where the law says he or she may drive a car does not mean that he automatically has the privilege of doing so. Many parents feel that, in view of the high accident rate for teenage drivers, they would rather be safe than sorry so far as their own teenage children's driving is concerned. Furthermore, they think young people should not feel that they cannot go out unless they have a car. How, for example, could they keep up the expenses of a car if they had to assume this responsibility themselves?

Dr. Hurlock will help you with family problems. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Welfare And Health Topics At League Meeting Last Night

At last night's meeting of the League of Women Voters Miss Maurie McDonald informed the membership about the work of the Delta County Department of Social Welfare and Dr. William Harrison described the work and structure of the Delta-Menominee Health Department.

Miss McDonald stated that the local department is an integrated one of social security and social welfare, financed by city and state. She said that the staff qualifies under civil service, must have a minimum of 2 years of college, serves a probationary period, and is rated once a year. Cases are decided on the basis of need, which is determined through investigation. Some of the categories cared for are the aged, the blind, dependent children, and the disabled the last being a fairly new part of the program.

Types and Details

According to Miss McDonald, direct relief also is an important part of the department. The mechanics of operation were described by her and many questions answered about types of cases, and details of handling them. Considerable interest was shown by the group. The increasing use of convalescent homes was noted.

Dr. Harrison, who heads the health department, pointed out that in 1927 legislation was passed which allowed for county health units, of which a city could be part. The emphasis in the health department is on education of the public, in addition to such services as supervision of water, milk and food supply, free immunization clinics, orthopedic and other clinics, work with schools and with local doctors, and other services.

Michigan Is Leader

It was pointed out that while Michigan is a leader in forming county health units, it is low in state contribution of funds, about 65 per cent of costs being paid by the county, 25 per cent by federal funds, and about 10 per cent coming from the state.

At the conclusion of the program, which was arranged by Mrs. Robert Mosenfelder, a brief business meeting was held. Mrs. Vagn Gydesen and Mrs. L. T. Vader gave a report on the board of education meeting, and votes were taken on the budget and agenda for the coming year.

Harmony Reigns In Michigan GOP

FLINT, Mich. — (P)—The harmony between Taft and Eisenhower forces in Michigan, sometimes a reported uneasy peace, apparently still reigns.

The state's 46 delegates to the GOP national convention in Chicago met for two hours in closed session here Sunday.

National committeeman Arthur E. Summerfield, host to the gathering at the Durand Hotel, said there was no test of strength between the supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and those of Sen. Robert Taft.

Said Summerfield: "There was an indication of complete harmony."

He added that all elections of Michigan delegates to serve on convention committees were unanimous.

The hottest seat filled was one on the important credentials committee, which will have to resolve bitter disputes in Texas and elsewhere as to which delegates should be seated. This went to George A. Shaffer of Detroit, who proclaimed complete neutrality for the time being at least between Taft and Eisenhower.

The General's backers claimed a victory, however, in the selection of Shaffer. They contended he was their nominee for the post.

Shaffer said he would be guided by results of a sampling of sentiment now in progress. So far, he said, the Wayne county (Detroit) sampling favors Eisenhower, but it is far from complete.

Eisenhower reportedly holds a 7-6 edge among the only 13 delegates who have expressed their sympathies.

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD

Ferndale Veteran Elected VFW Head

BAY CITY, Mich.—(P)—Jasper H. Kohn, a World War II Navy radar man from Ferndale, is the new commander of the Michigan Department, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Kohn, now employed at the Detroit tank arsenal, was elevated to the top post Sunday as the VFW ended its four-day annual encampment here.

Joseph Ritzheim of Saginaw was elected senior vice commander without opposition.

There was a contest, however, for junior vice commander, a post which in two years normally leads to the commander job. In this one, Leon B. Buer of Grand Rapids won out over Val Pilot of Detroit.

Port Huron was picked as the 1953 encampment site.

Senior drum and bugle corps honors went to the Wayne County Council VFW Post. The Morley S. Oates Post of Lansing took the band championship.

Governor Of Illinois Has Operation, Cancels Only One Stump Talk

CHICAGO—(P)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois underwent an operation for removal of a kidney stone Saturday but is expected to resume his full schedule of official and political business today.

Despite his ailment, Stevenson, a Democratic presidential possibility, has had to cancel but one speech in his professed campaign "only for reelection as governor of Illinois."

The governor delivered a commencement address in Chicago just before entering Passavant Hospital for the operation.

Fayette

Bridal Shower

FAYETTE—A large group of Fayette, Garden and Manistique women attended a shower, arranged by Mrs. Gordon McPhee, Mrs. Francis Thill and Mrs. Roger Tallman for Miss Jacqueline Reno, daughter of Jerry Reno of Garden. The party was held Thursday night at the town hall, which was appropriately decorated. The main diversion was 500 in which prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Rochefort, Mrs. Louis DeVet and Mrs. Earl Cota in first, second and low positions. Mrs. Harvey Humbert received the guest award. Jackie received an abundance of lovely gifts for housekeeping in the near future.

It is believed that the Eskimos lived north of Lake Superior about 2,000 years ago and moved north from there.

ARTHRITIS MADE WASH DAY A PAINFUL TASK

"Just putting my hands in water was painful, before I found relief with O-JIB-WA BITTERS," says Mrs. Viola Jordan, 19430 Albion, Detroit, Michigan.

"I've suffered from arthritis in both my hands for over five years, and many nights they pained so bad that I couldn't sleep and often had to get up nights. Even the tablets I took to deaden the pain did very little good. Needless to say, housework was exception, and wash days were unbearable, as just putting my hands in water was so very painful. I suffered terribly as my condition continued to get worse and large lumps formed on the ends of my fingers and they got so stiff that I could hardly bend them. I read a testimonial for O-JIB-WA BITTERS in my daily paper and decided to try it, and in just two weeks, I could see wonderful results. There was truly as much difference as day and night. The lumps on my fingers got smaller and the pain and stiffness soon left me. I give O-JIB-WA BITTERS full credit for the wonderful results it has brought to me. Unless you have experienced it, it is hard to believe that O-JIB-WA BITTERS really can do so much. It has changed my entire life and I no longer fear rheumatism and arthritis. It also helped settle my nerves and stomach. I urge all sufferers of rheumatism and arthritis to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS."

No Fraud In Truck Deal, Supervisors State, In Recommending New Bids

A resolution passed by the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon declared that the Schoolcraft County Road Commission acted in good faith, with no fraud being alleged or shown, in a truck deal last winter and recommended that the commission seek new bids on five new trucks.

The resolution was approved, with four dissenting votes, after several rural supervisors complained that county road work was being seriously delayed by lack of equipment.

Four city supervisors objected to the resolution because of its recommendation that new bids be asked before a Circuit Court decision on a recent injunction hearing is rendered. The four were A. W. Heitman, George Stephens, Vernon C. Linderoth and W. G. Stephens.

A temporary injunction restraining the road commission from accepting delivery of or paying for five trucks purchased last winter from a Marquette dealer was argued at a special session of Schoolcraft County Circuit Court in Sault Ste. Marie several weeks ago.

Decision Awaited
A decision based on testimony and briefs presented at the hearing has not yet been rendered by Circuit Judge Herbert W. Runnels.

Manistique auto dealers who obtained the temporary injunction made no allegation or showing of fraud in the truck deal at the Sault hearing, it was pointed out at the meeting. Their case, it was stated, was based solely on the manner in which the bid specifications were worded.

Two members of the road commission, Henry Orschel, of Cooks, and Harold McNamara, of Manistique, and the county road engineer, Eugene Johnson, attended the county board session.

Commissioners told supervisors that seven private trucks were being rented to help carry out the county road work program, but said there was no assurance the service of private trucks could be maintained through the season.

Road commissioners also emphasized the loss of truck rental revenue involved in the use of private trucks, estimated to be about $11 daily per truck.

May Appeal
The possibility of a Circuit Court decision on the injunction being appealed to the Michigan Supreme Court, no matter in whose favor it is given, also was discussed.

Such an appeal, it was pointed out, could delay the purchase of needed trucks until next winter unless new bids are asked.

The resolution follows: "Whereas, pending litigation may restrain the Schoolcraft County Road Commission from purchasing needed trucks for several months in case of an appeal from the awaited decision of the Circuit Court, and

"Whereas, it was definitely shown and admitted in court that the said commission acted in good faith in the purchase of said trucks, and no fraud was alleged or shown, and

"Whereas the county is in desperate need of said trucks, "Now therefore be it resolved that the board suggest to the Schoolcraft County Road Commission to void the anticipated delay in litigation and in the public interest, that the commission advertise for new trucks at this time."

County Retires Hospital Bonds

The final principal payment on Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital bonds was made in June, it was reported at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday by G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk.

The last payment on principal amounted to $30,000. A total of $375 was paid on interest, leaving a balance of $375 in interest not collected. Funds to cover this, however, were deposited with the local bond collection agency by the county.

Available to make final principal and interest payment was $46,280.25. The surplus of $16,530.25 will be left in the hospital building, maintenance and furnishing fund, as established in a resolution providing for the bond issue. This balance may be increased during the next few months by delinquent tax collections.

Funds to retire the total bond issue of $150,000, first spread on the 1947 tax roll, were raised in four years although the issue was to be spread over a five-year period. Increased county valuations in 1949 was primarily responsible for raising the necessary funds in four years, it was reported.

The hospital tax was eliminated from the tax rolls in 1951, a year ahead of time, but because the bonds were not callable, funds to retire the issue were set aside to meet final interest and principal payments as they came due.

New Defense Bond Poster Placed On Local Postal Truck

A brilliant, four-color new defense bond poster is now appearing on local postal trucks, it is reported by Frank M. Gierke Sr., Manistique postmaster.

Posters were put on trucks Sunday and will remain there through the rest of June and July. Similar posters will appear on postal trucks throughout the nation during this period.

The poster, created by one of the nation's top commercial artists, carries a patriotic pictorial theme surrounding a design of defense bonds, and has the slogan, "Now Even Better, Invest More in Defense Bonds."

Purchase of E bonds at the local post office has been underway since the bonds were first offered 12 years ago. Information on the improved E bond may be obtained locally at the post office, Gierke said.

NOW IN JAPAN—Pvt. Earle J. Eisele, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Leon LaPorte, Hiawatha township, is now serving with Co. C, 114th Engineers, in Japan. Pvt. Eisele, who is 22, has been in service since Nov. 9, 1950.

Janice Multhaupt Bride Saturday Of Francis Jacobs

Miss Janice Lee Multhaupt, granddaughter of Mrs. Mina Multhaupt, 520 Michigan Ave., became the bride of Francis Karl Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jacobs, of Gulliver, at a ceremony Saturday morning at St. Francis de Sales Church. Rev. F. M. Scheringer performed the 9 o'clock high mass.

The altar was decorated with bridal wreaths of iris and peonies. The bride was attired in a pink suit with navy blue trim and navy blue accessories. Her bouquet was of yellow, rose, biege, pink and white snapdragons.

Miss Joan Jacobs, of Rockford, Ill., sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore a navy blue suit with blue accessories. Her flowers were red roses and white snapdragons.

George Hough served as best man and Benjamin and Kenneth Multhaupt, uncles of the bride, seated the guests.

Mrs. Mina Multhaupt attended her granddaughter's wedding in a black street length dress with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Bray, of San Antonio, Texas, wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Jacobs, the groom's mother, wore an aqua and blue street length dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's grandmother for 35 guests. The newlyweds are making their home in the Wehner apartments, Walnut St.

The groom is a graduate of Manistique high school.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Multhaupt, of Lansing; Mrs. Frank Bray, of San Antonio, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gildner and family, of West Branch; Clifford Benwell and daughters, of Rockford, Ill.; Mrs. Louis LaBombard, of Flint; Kenneth Multhaupt, of Lansing and Miss Joan Jacobs, of Rockford, Ill.

Surrendered Reds Get Cash Reward

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya—(AP)—The Malayan government has awarded $4,290 to three Communist terrorists who surrendered recently and later returned to their jungle camp to bring out 10 compatriots and quantities of weapons.

The 13 Reds, all Chinese, had said they feared to surrender before as they had been told all who surrendered were either put to death or jailed.

Race Wide Open For Top Rookie Ballplayer Of 1952

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Who are going to win the rookie of the year awards this year? It's a wide open race with practically every club in both big leagues boasting at least one outstanding candidate.

Sammy White, Eddie Mathews and Bob Nieman, a trio of first year "phenoms" laid solid claim to this honor yesterday, coming through with noteworthy performances.

White, 23-year-old Boston catcher, batted out three hits and drew a walk in four times at bat to lead the Red Sox to a 12-6 victory over the Detroit Tigers. Sammy struck his fifth homer of the season in the third inning and followed with a pair of singles in a big 11-run fourth to drive in four runs.

Yanks Take Slugfest

Mathews, the fuzz-faced third baseman of the Boston Braves, rapped his 12th homer of the year in the sixth to put his team on even terms with Pittsburgh and scored again as the Braves rallied with five runs in the eighth to down the Pirates, 9-3. The 20-year-old slugger ranks fourth in the National League in home runs. He has hit a four-bagger in every park except Brooklyn.

Nieman batted in three runs on three hits for the Browns but could not stave off a 17-hit hitting spree by the Yankees that gave New York a 14-10 slugfest win over St. Louis. In the day's only other action, Washington whipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-4.

Another freshman, Jimmy Brideweser, starting his first game for the Yankees, slapped three singles and drove in a pair of runs to play a prominent role in the victory. Brideweser played second only because Billy Martin had a pulled tendon in his right leg.

Ivan DeLoock, the young right-hander from Scranton, coasted to his fourth victory once the Red Sox broke through for their 11-run outburst against Ted Gray, Billy Hoelt and Hal White. Eight singles, a double, three walks and two Tiger errors produced the second biggest inning of the American League season. The league record is 14 for a single inning by one club.

White Sox Stopped

Nine pitchers went to the well as the Yankees and Browns pounded out 33 hits and drew 10 bases on balls in the three-hour and 22 minute game under the St. Louis lights. Joe Collins, who was almost traded away before the June 15 deadline, continued his bombardment with a pair of home runs and a double to drive in four Yankee runs.

Joe Ostrowski, second of three Yankee hurlers, was the winner. Earl Harritt, second of six Brownie flingers, suffered his sixth loss against two victories.

The Senators stopped the White Sox rush as Frank Shea pitched and batted them to their 6-4 win. The veteran right-hander singled in what proved to be the two winning runs and gained his fifth victory although he needed help from Joe Haynes in the seventh.

Rookie Ernie Johnson, pitching scoreless ball for the last five innings, received credit for the Braves' win over Pittsburgh as Boston overcame an early 3-0 deficit. Gus Bell's eighth homer in the first off starter Dave Cole with two mates aboard accounted for all Pittsburgh's runs.

Rain washed out the scheduled games between the Cards and Dodgers in Brooklyn, Cincinnati and Giants in New York and the Cubs and Phillies in Philadelphia. Cleveland and the Philadelphia Athletics were not scheduled.

Two Cool Lads In PGA Contest

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

LOUISVILLE — (AP) — You can tab a big, cigar-chewing fellow named Bob Hamilton and a wiry little guy named Ted Kroll as two of the coolest customers on the 160-acre steam bath known as the Big Spring golf club.

Neither expected to reach the semifinals of the 34th PGA championship. Now that they've made it, they're enjoying their positions to the utmost.

Today Kroll, who can't take a game like golf too seriously after his experiences on the Anzio beachhead during World War II, clashes with swarthy little Jimmy Turnesa in one of the 36-hole semi-final matches. Hamilton, winner of the title in 1944, encounters Chesty Chick Harbert in the other match.

So far as the public is concerned, it is a semifinal round without names. The last of the publicized stars of the pro circuit went out yesterday. Kroll walked up to the tee for the second hole of a "sudden death" playoff, lashed out a six iron shot over the heads of the still-moving spectators and laid it stiff for a birdie two. This eliminated Dr. Cary Middlecoff, the 1949 National Open champion.

But they're all tournament-tough players who earned their semi-final brackets in the only big match play tournament for pros. While Kroll and Middlecoff were battling it out in extra holes, Turnesa knocked out his sharp-shooting Westchester county, N. Y., neighbor, Clarence Doser, 2 and 1. Harbert rallied to beat lanky Fred Haas by the same margin and the beefy Hamilton, who plays little tournament golf nowadays, outlasted Frank Champ, the Houston, Tex., driving range operator for another 2 and 1 victory.

Throughout the entire match, Kroll gently needed his rival, quipping at the gallery. On the 32nd hole, after Middlecoff had holed out a 25-foot putt for a birdie, Ted calmly stepped up, rammed in a 20-footer for a half and impishly thumbed his nose at his rival.

Hamilton, four up on the faltering champ after the first 18, spent the lunch interval laughing and joking with friends. But he betrayed a few signs of nervousness when he went out to the practice tee and hit a few shots before starting the second round.

As opponents in a tough match, Harbert and Turnesa aren't players to be discounted. They have both gone to the final round of this tournament before. Turnesa was runner-up to Sam Snead in 1942 and Harbert to Jim Ferrier in 1947.

Good In Pinches

DETROIT — (AP) — Manager Red Rolfe of the Tigers can take some solace from the pinch-hitting performances of Johnny Hopp, recently acquired as a free agent. The 36-year-old vet, who doubled for pitcher Hal White in the eighth inning of yesterday's 12 to 6 loss to Boston, has come through four times in 11 tries as a pinch-swinger.

Piano Concert Thursday Night

A piano concert will be presented in the Mission Covenant Church Thursday evening at 8 by the Rev. Fred Jacobson of Pennsylvania under auspices of the Covenant Fellowship group.

The general public is invited. Refreshments will be served in the church parlors following the concert with Mrs. Isaac Swanson and Mrs. Harold Nelson as hostesses.

Rev. Jacobson is a graduate of Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa and North Park College Seminary, Chicago. He also is a graduate of the Metropolitan Conservatory of Music in Chicago and has studied piano, organ and theory at the American Conservatory of Music, the Moody Bible Institute Music Department, North Park College Conservatory and the Morningside Conservatory.

For nearly five years he traveled in 42 states as evangelistic pianist for leading evangelists as well as their secretary and young peoples worker.

His program will consist chiefly of gospel hymns in variations in which field he excels, although he plans to open his program with a group of classical numbers.

Special Services To Close Thursday With Confirmation

Elder Al. Pelletier, Toronto, Canada, who has been conducting missionary services at the Reorganized Latter Day Saints Church for the past three weeks, will close the series on Thursday evening with confirmation.

Strange Deaths In Detroit Area

(By The Associated Press)

The circumstances were strange in a series of visits by death in the Detroit area Monday.

Joseph A. Boroff, 56, Detroit bar owner, sat down in the Barlum hotel's mezzanine to read his paper.

According to the coroner's office, he had been dead in the chair of a heart attack for "six or eight" hours before a curious bell boy found it out.

Last midnight patrolman Sidney Dethloff, 34, of the newly incorporated City of Livonia, talked to a motorist on Seven Mile road.

Two police cars had pulled up. The three cars were parked in a line off the road.

Another car sped up and, out of control, veered off the highway. It struck Dethloff. He was hurled to the roof of one police car.

As he toppled from the car roof, the car out of control hit him again crushing him between an open door of the police car and the car frame.

Dethloff was dead on admittance to the Redford branch of receiving hospital. The car driver was held.

Leonard L. Mende, 24, operating a Wayne county road commission machine, was struck by a truck and killed. Both vehicles burned when the gasoline tank of the mower burst into flame.

The truck driver, James Cameron, 32, en route from Lansing, jumped to safety.

Four-year-old Glenna Chatham was swinging on a playfield. She fell off. The swing hit her head, killing her.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Radio-television issues jumped into life today in the stock market after the government lifted its ban on color television set production.

Radio Corp. and Columbia Broadcasting System "A" and "B" issues were active and moderately higher. Both have perfected color systems. Stocks of other television set makers followed the higher trend.

The stock market as a whole was quietly mixed with prices spread out over a range of around a point higher to fractions lower.

Several individual issues were active. United Cigar-Whelan opened on a block of 5,000 shares unchanged at 4. Standard Gas & Electric was active on the upside after starting on a 1,000 block up 1/4 at 13 1/2.

The market yesterday turned irregularly lower in late trading after standing ahead throughout the day. Railroads led the market up and then turned around and headed the fall.

Corporate bonds today were narrowly mixed.

Battle Creek Banker Arrested On Charge Of Embezzling $12,916

DETROIT—(AP)—A federal grand jury is scheduled today to begin looking into the manipulations of John R. Piper, a former loan supervisor for the Michigan National Bank of Battle Creek.

The FBI arrested Piper yesterday at Battle Creek and charged him with embezzling $12,916 between December 1949, and January, 1952.

Piper is accused by the government of issuing fictitious loans, crediting the proceeds to his own account or purchasing money orders. The FBI quoted him as saying he used the money to pay debts.

Piper resigned his $4,200 a year job June 6 and announced he planned to go to California to accept a banking job. He had been employed by the Michigan National since 1946.

Authorities said Piper was married and had two children by a previous marriage.

Cicero Police Chief Pays Fine Of $2500 For 1951 Race Riots

CHICAGO—(AP)—The chief of police and two policemen of suburban Cicero were fined a total of $2,500 yesterday as the result of riots last July touched off when a Negro family attempted to move in to the all-white suburb.

Federal Judge Walter L. Labay fined Chief Edwin Konovsky $2,000 and Sgt. Roland Brani and Patrolman Frank A. Lange, $250 each.

The three were convicted by a federal jury on June 4 of denying the civil rights of Harvey E. Clarke Jr., a Negro who attempted to move his family into a Cicero apartment. The jury also found Konovsky guilty of conspiring to deny the civil rights of Clarke.

A mob estimated at 5,000 rioted in the suburb intermittently during three days, until Illinois National Guard troops and police restored order. Clark never moved into the apartment.

Lightning Does Damage At Soo

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. — (AP)—Wind, rain and lightning struck at the Sault area early today in the severest storm of the season.

The lightning hit a power company tie switch near the heart of the city, struck seven transformers and caused a power blackout in half the town.

The storm struck at 4:45 a. m. and lasted a half hour. During that time .96 inches of rain poured upon the area, blown into sheets by a severe southeast wind.

Breakfasting in her home at Brimley, 14 miles west of the Sault, Mrs. Catherine Sutton saw a fireball come through the wall of her house and knock a can of tomato juice off the kitchen table. She sat stunned until smoke pouring from the wall aroused her. Firemen, summoned to the scene, prevented major damage.

In the Sault, James Yeach was working at the Sault creamery, making cottage cheese. A bolt of lightning hit wires on the building, travelled through the machinery and stunned the worker. He suffered no permanent damage.

Heavy damage also was reported in the Pickford area, 22 miles southeast. There a barn owned by Howard Hesselink was toppled by the wind.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., across the St. Mary's River, also was reported damaged and blacked out by the storm.

Britain is anxious that she and the United States speak with one voice as these developments come to a head.

Grim Mock Attack To Test New York Atom Bomb Defenses

NEW YORK—(AP)—A mock but grim A-bomb attack is planned on New York today to test the nation's air defenses.

An Air Force B-29, playing the role of an enemy plane, is due to fly from a European base and attempt an attack at some unknown hour.

Defending jet planes, alerted by ground observers or radar stations, are to try to intercept it.

The man in the street won't know about the exercise.

But motion pictures will be made from the planes, civilian defense centers, air bases, radar stations and other points. The films will be shown Sunday on television programs.

Last night, in a civil defense test, a make-believe atomic bomb burst over Manhattan in an explosion that officials said would have killed more than 97,000 persons.

Hoover's Men Locate 19,000 Draft Dodgers

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The FBI said today it has located more than 19,000 draft delinquents since the peacetime selective service law went into effect.

The data was made public by Director J. Edgar Hoover on the fourth anniversary of the law.

Of the men located, Hoover said, 3,301 were actually fugitives, and prosecutions have resulted in 554 convictions.

Hoover stressed that the Bureau's chief interest in such investigations is to make the draft ern North Korea.

Not one Communist jet challenged the attacking Allied planes, although Allied pilots said more than 200 swept-wing MIG-15s were parked on a Manchurian air base within sight of Suifu.

The Air Force said all of its planes returned safely. The Navy said one carrier-based plane was shot down by anti-aircraft fire and four others were hit, but no pilots were lost.

No official at United Nations headquarters would say where the order to bomb the power stations originated. The plants have been spared since the war began two years ago and observers said the decision to smash them appeared to be more political than military.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, who formerly headed the U. N. armistice team at Munsan, said at San Diego that he had known for some time a major strike was planned unless an armistice was signed soon.

Japanese newspaper editors mostly took a grave view of the attack.

"The U. N. has played a trump card and perhaps risked an all-out war with Communist China," one editor said.

Biggest In Asia

The big power development along the Yalu was built by the Japanese when they controlled both Korea and Manchuria. It was Asia's biggest hydro-electric project. About 60 per cent of the power was diverted to Manchuria. The rest went to the North Korean capital of Pyongyang and other cities.

So far there has been no direct reaction from the Communists.

The Korean battlefront was relatively quiet Monday after more than two weeks of the heaviest fighting since November.

Six Chinese platoons hit an advance position held by troops of the South Korean (ROK) Sixth Division southeast of Kumsong on the central front Monday night. But the U. S. Eighth Army said the ROKs drove the Chinese off in a two-hour battle.

Allied and Red patrols tangled briefly on the western front near Chorwon, where the heaviest fighting since last fall have been fought on T-Bone and Pork Chop hills during the past two weeks.

The Eighth Army reported that during the week ended Saturday, Allied troops killed 1,298 Communist troops, wounded 1,180 and captured 35 prisoners. The total is 760 less than the previous week but still well above the weekly average since the twilight war began last fall.

Escanaba Township School Board Sells Three Old Schools

The unused Howard, Carroll and Sovey school buildings were sold last night to the highest bidders at a meeting of the Escanaba Township Board of Education.

Joe King's bid of $361.98 was high for the Sovey school. Other bidders were Frank Barron, $150; Louis Jackovich, $215; and Daniel Chenier, $201.75.

The Howard school was sold to Frank Barron for $800. One other bid was submitted by Ray Barron for $590.

The Carroll school went to Eldridge Newhouse, whose bid of $505.06 was the only one received.

One bid on the Nadon school for $700 by Frank Barron was rejected because the Board felt it was too low, it was reported by George Rappette, Board secretary.

Some 11,929 cases of indicated draft-evasion were awaiting investigation at the beginning of this month, the report said.

2. Support the United Nations, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and other security agreements as instruments for peace.

Isolation Dangerous

In firm command of his own campaign, Eisenhower left no doubt he classed Taft among the isolationists and that he believed a "retreat into isolationism" would leave the United States "encircled by a savage wolf pack" of Communism.

Today the General called a news conference to enlarge on his views. Later he was to meet with GOP national convention delegates from Louisiana, where Taft-Eisenhower forces are disputing the manner in which delegates were elected to the national convention in Chicago next month.

Stubborn Democrats Cut Idle Workers Out Of Compensation

LANSING — (AP) — Michigan workmen soon will begin to feel the effects of the "Democrat refusal to approve an extra six weeks of unemployment compensation," Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) declared today.

In a press statement, Hutchinson said unemployment is rising because of the steel strike and that Great Lakes seamen are beginning to suffer idleness.

He condemned the Democratic members of the legislature for blocking a G. O. P. bill to provide additional compensation for this year and to include seamen under the law.

"The net result," he said, "is that each family will be deprived of $27 to $35 a week if there is prolonged unemployment this year because of the steel strike. I just don't know what the Democrats were thinking about when they refused to give Michigan workers this extra protection for their families."

"It seems to me that they were just being stubborn under the direction of labor bosses who

Shortage Of Steel Causes Layoff Of Over 12,000 At GM

(By The Associated Press)

General Motors, blaming a steel shortage, today ordered layoffs of more than 12,000 workers.

Ten thousand will be laid off Wednesday and Thursday at GM's big Chevrolet production center at Flint. Tonight 2,400 Chevrolet forge plant workers in Detroit will be laid off.

These will be the first major layoffs in the auto industry attributed to the CIO Steel Workers strike.

Last week Ford mapped out a four-day work week but cancelled it all in the same day, retaining the normal five-day week. Ford said it decided to retain the five-day week because its government materials allocations might be cut if it went on a four-day week.

Compared with the size of its full work force, General Motors' layoff was limited. GM employs approximately 175,000 production workers in the nation.

GM will lay off another 8,000 Flint workers for inventory next Monday.

Sticky Weather Hits Wide Area

(By The Associated Press)

Hot and sticky weather was the outlook today for wide areas in the central and southern portions of the country.

Wind and rain storms swept Midwest areas during the night, with heavy damage to property and crops in some sections. The thunderstorms, accompanied by winds which reached near tornadoic velocity in some parts of Iowa, hit over Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and northern Michigan. In Iowa, the storm disrupted communications, demolished farm buildings, uprooted trees and telephones and killed livestock.

Gusts of 45 miles an hour and a thunderstorm were reported at Cadillac in northern Lower Michigan.

A hot-humid belt extended southward from the Great Lakes region and eastward from the Texas Panhandle. A few low temperatures during the night were as high as 80. Readings yesterday included 107 at Hill City, Kan., 103 at Amarillo, Tex., and 98 at Omaha and Paducah, Ky.

Greece To Recognize King Farouk In Sudan

ATHENS, Greece—(AP)—Greece has decided to recognize Egypt's King Farouk as ruler of the disputed Anglo-Egyptian Sudan. She is the first non-Moslem nation to give such recognition.

The move was announced yesterday by Deputy Premier Sophocles Venizelos, who said his government was influenced by Pakistan's Revento recognition of Farouk as King of Egypt's upper Nile neighbor from which the Egyptians want to oust the British.

Political sources speculated, however, that the Greek move was influenced by Britain's refusal to negotiate with the Athens government on Greek demands for control of the nearby British-ruled island of Cyprus.

They were determined to have everything their way or nothing."

Lattimore Says He's Not Planning Trip Behind Iron Curtain

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Washington Post said today the FBI has determined that a report Owen Lattimore was planning a trip to an iron curtain country was "a sheer fabrication."

The FBI refused immediate comment on the newspaper story, but a spokesman said a statement might be made later today.

It was on the basis of the report that Lattimore intended a trip to an iron curtain country that the state department ordered customs officials to see to it that Lattimore did not leave the country.

Lattimore is a professor at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore and a central figure in a Senate investigation into reports of Communist influences over the state department. He has repeatedly denied any Communist connections.

The Post said the FBI has determined that the person who made the report about the alleged Lattimore trip "was an informant to the central intelligence agency."

The newspaper added: "Under subsequent investigation by the FBI he is said to have admitted that his statement was untrue."

The state department order to customs officials was sent out June 11. Clarifying the directive last week, press officer Michael J. McDermott said the order was precautionary — pending a check into the report.

Lattimore said he had no intention of traveling behind the Iron Curtain.
